U See I Write - Faculty Writing Retreat Winter 2018

Location: Hyatt Regency, Newport Beach, California
Date and Time: January 5th, 2018, 8:30am to 4:30pm

Applications are now open for our Winter Quarter Writing Retreat! Please see the information below for more details.

As academics, much of our professional advancement depends on the success of our writing. However, despite our best intentions, our writing goals often succumb to the pressures of more immediate tasks with more pressing deadlines.

The goal of this writing retreat is to establish a community of UCI faculty members who want to support each other in their writing, learn about good writing habits, and celebrate their writing successes with each other. This call for applications is open to (a) UCI faculty members at the Assistant Professor rank; (b) UCI faculty members who have completed or are in the process of completing the National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity’s Faculty Success Program, regardless of rank; and (c) UCI faculty members who have participated in a previous U See I Write Faculty Writing Retreats, regardless of rank.

During the retreat, we will spend much of the time focused on writing, while also providing ample opportunity to get to know other like-minded writers at UCI.

DETAILS: The retreat is limited to a maximum of 30 participants, and participation is by application only. UCI faculty members of any discipline are welcome.

COST: This event is sponsored by UCI’s Office of Inclusive Excellence. Participants are responsible for their own transportation.

TO APPLY: Please complete the attached application form and submit it together with your CV to Ilona Yim at ilona.yim@uci.edu. All applications are due by Friday, December 22nd, 2017.
